SERVICES

Personalized and confidential budget and credit counseling is available to consumers by phone, online, and in person at our branch locations. We work one-on-one with people to help them manage their money better, pay down debt, prepare to purchase a home or avoid foreclosure. Creditors may reduce interest rates or waive fees for those consumers who participate in a Debt Management Program. Clearpoint also offers a variety of housing services, as well as student loan and bankruptcy counseling.

RESULTS

For more than 50 years, Clearpoint has been helping consumers across the country regain control of their financial futures. We are committed to the communities we serve, and support economic stability and prosperity by partnering with local businesses, community organizations and other nonprofits.

BRANCHES

Clearpoint is a national nonprofit headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, with branches in many large metropolitan areas

STANDARDS OF EXCELLENCE

When it comes to protecting your finances, you need the experience and knowledge of a reliable partner. Clearpoint upholds the highest standards for performance through its participation in organizations dedicated to ethical business practices. Take a look at some of our accreditations below.

ACCREDITATIONS

As a system-wide accredited business with the Better Business Bureau (BBB), Clearpoint is a member in good standing at every bureau that serves areas in which Clearpoint has branch locations.

Clearpoint is a member of the National Foundation for Credit Counseling (NFCC), the most established and trusted credit counseling trade organization. All Clearpoint financial counselors are required to become NFCC-certified in seven areas of intense study, including topics such as "Consumer Rights," "Credit and Borrowing" and "Debt Management and Bankruptcy."

The Council on Accreditation for Family and Children's Services (COA) is an independent, not-for-profit child and family services organization.

The United States Department of Justice Executive Office for U.S. Trustees monitors bankruptcy cases and ensures swift, just resolution and protects all parties against fraud.
