ClearPoint Credit Counseling Solutions Honors Missouri Business Leader Ken Moser

Arnold, MO - ClearPoint Credit Counseling Solutions (CCCS) has presented Ken Moser with the Howle Community Support Award in recognition of his support for ClearPoint's mission of consumer health through financial education.

Serving as the Vice President of Marketing with Arsenal Credit Union, Mr. Moser regularly promotes ClearPoint's mission internally and through his work as a member of ClearPoint's Regional Advisory Committee. His commitment to financial education has been demonstrated by his work promoting the delivery of ClearPoint's services to the community. Fortright with his enthusiasm about helping others, he has often taken the lead in collaborative efforts that deliver ClearPoint's financial counseling and education to those in need. His education and background in journalism has also helped ClearPoint find new opportunities to share it's message with a growing audience.

The Howle Community Support Award is presented annually to one of ClearPoint's Regional Advisory Committee members in recognition of their efforts furthering ClearPoint's mission of consumer health through financial education. The award's namesake, Paul W. Howle III, is a pioneer in the world of nonprofit credit counseling, and has served on ClearPoint's Board of Directors for more than 31 years.

ClearPoint Credit Counseling Solutions (CCCS) recognizes ClearPoint Credit Counseling Solutions, a nonprofit organization, is a member of the NFCC and a system-wide accredited business with the Council of Better Business Bureaus and a U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)-approved housing counseling agency.
